Clinical Negligence

Alex has a developing clinical negligence practice. He advises, drafts pleadings and acts mainly for Claimants in a wide range of areas. He has experience of high value claims and complex causation arguments.

Some examples of recent work include:

1. Drafting pleadings, advising in conference with a Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon and Consultant Plastic Surgeon and representing a Claimant who sustained injuries following subacromial decompression.
2. Advising and representing the deceased's family in relation to coronial proceedings concerning a death in hospital following knee replacement surgery. Alex advised on quantum and the civil claim later settled for tens of thousands of pounds.
3. Advising in relation to a possible claim concerning a lady who died following admission to hospital.

Alex has experience in inquests and has acted for both families and interested persons.

Recommendations

"I would like to say how impressed I was with Mr Alex Williams. Mr Williams was really quick off the mark and, although hopefully the need will not arise, I would not hesitate to have him as my representative again."

"The barrister that was appointed, Alex Williams was quite excellent."

Beyond the Bar

Prior to coming to the Bar, Alex worked as an in-house lawyer for Univar, a leading global chemical distributor. Alex is fluent in French and, with the benefit of an internship award, worked as a stagiaire in the cabinet of Advocate General Eleanor Sharpston QC at the European Court of Justice in Luxembourg. In his spare time Alex is a keen, but untalented, sportsman and musician.
