Overview

Alice acts exclusively for Defendants. She is instructed as a sole junior against King's Counsel and is recognised as a leading junior by both the Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners.

She is a specialist in civil fraud, negligence and costs. Her work is predominantly in the High Court and encompasses clinical negligence, personal injury, insurance disputes and costs litigation.

She has substantial experience in claims arising out of employer's liability, occupier's liability, product liability and public liability.

In 2019 she was one of the youngest barristers to be appointed a Recorder.

Her strong academic background, outstanding written and oral advocacy and judicial experience make her first choice counsel for a number of insurers and defence firms.

Recommendations

“Alice is extremely knowledgeable, she has a confident presence but is approachable, and she gains an in-depth understanding of the matter she is instructed on and is willing to discuss matters and answer any questions.”

The Legal 500 2025

“Alice Dobbie is exceptional at drafting pleadings and summarising complex issues in a simple, easy-to-understand way. She is also willing to go the extra mile when working on our cases.”

“She is excellent in all areas.”

Chambers and Partners 2025

“Alice is extremely focused and organised with fantastic attention to detail. She really focuses her mind on the case she is working on and compiles sound and robust advice, and she is particularly good when considering fundamental dishonesty and has strategic ways of investigating and combatting such issues.”

The Legal 500 2024

“Consistently brilliant. Gifted at cutting straight to the issues and has excellent instincts.”

“Her pleadings are second to none and she is engaging on her feet.”

“Beautifully explained opinions.”

The Legal 500, 2023

“Not afraid to pull apart any concern within a pleaded claim.”

“Quick to get her message clearly across to the judge.”
