Property

Ben has a busy commercial land practice, with his notable instructions on behalf of commercial landowners including:

- His appearance, and drafting of pleadings, on behalf of a commercial landlord of a piece of commercial real estate in London in forfeiture proceedings.

The above matters aside, Ben has acted on a wide variety of possession claims and related applications, including:

- the section 8 and section 21 varieties; and
- applications to set aside, vary and suspend possession orders stemming not only from traditional possession proceedings, but also possession orders obtained in the insolvency context.

We attended a possession hearing last week and after a long battle, we obtained the order we needed and Ben was able to persuade the judge to ignore the numerous obstacles trying to be put up by the opposing barrister.

The clients have been very happy with his services, they are a private paying couple, the fees for dealing with the matter have been kept reasonable and as ever more work has not doubt been done and not charged for.

We have been very pleased with the service from Ben and would recommend his services to anyone."

Of Ben's performance in successfully defending a £104,000 summary judgment application, Ben's instructing solicitor said of his performance, by way of feedback to Chambers' senior management:

"I would like to bring to your attention my admiration for the work done by Counsel in extremely difficult circumstances."

Beyond the Bar

Ben is an avid guitarist, having played (or, at least, attempted to play) the instrument since the age of 5. His obsession with the instrument sees him attempt to source a guitar shop on each of his travels to the various court centres up and down the jurisdiction to which he is sent.
