

Christian Taylor

Call 2003

Clerks

 Leigh Daniels
 0161 817 2768

 Olivia Cleere
 0161 817 7138

Appointments

Advocacy Tutor at Lincoln's Inn
Registered Pupil Supervisor

Memberships

The Association of Personal Injury
Lawyers (APIL)

Education

- MA (Cantab) (2:1)
- Post Graduate Diploma Law (Commendation)
- Bar Vocational Course (Very Competent)
- Hardwicke Scholar, Sir Thomas More Bursary Lincoln's Inn

Overview

Christian Taylor has represented hundreds of either seriously or catastrophically injured people.

He has been a key part of successful legal teams that have recovered tens of millions of pounds in compensation.

Christian knows how to maximise prospects of succeeding in a claim. He also recognises that each client is an individual with their own circumstances and priorities. Christian works with each client to achieve the best outcome for them in their claim.

Christian communicates in an understanding and succinct manner and has very recently been praised for being “highly personable” (The Legal 500, 2025).

He has contributed to the recently published 18th Edition of Munkman on Employer's Liability (LexisNexis).

Christian has learned much from the wisdom and experience of clients, solicitors, barristers and judges during his more than 20 years' as a Barrister. He continues to do so.

Recommendations

“Christian can grasp and analyse complex issues arising in clinical negligence claims. He provides balanced, thoughtful, yet definite advice without delay, and he will readily engage in discussions with instructing solicitors around strategy.”

“Christian is an excellent and highly able advocate who is able to present thorough and cogent arguments on the most complex of matters. He is highly personable and relates well to clients too.”

The Legal 500 2025

“Christian is instructed in increasingly large matters. He is a talent and a good brain.”

“He provides clear and practical counsel.”

“He is someone I use for high-value claims. He is really good with client care and is excellent speaking with experts.”

Chambers and Partners 2025

“Christian’s advocacy skills are second-to-none. He is extremely clever, particularly mathematically gifted, he is extremely warm and personable, and he is able to form good relationships with lay clients quickly.”

“Christian is clear and considered in his approach with the court, clients, and solicitors. He is approachable and empathetic, and he uses his considerable knowledge of the law and process to act as adversary or collaborator as is appropriate, representing the facts of a case and using the law to argue the best possible outcome.”

The Legal 500 2024

‘Christian advises on evidence with clarity and focus to tactically achieve the best outcome for claimants, without bamboozling clients. He is popular with colleagues, solicitors and clients, easy to work with, efficient, approachable, driven and hard working.’

The Legal 500 2023

Publications

“Service of copy claim forms: two triumphs of substance over form”,
January 2023

“Good experts win cases: Pickering v Cambridge University Hospitals
NHS Foundation Trust”, May 2022

“Unfair crime compensation scheme inflicts lasting pain”, The Times,
The Brief, 17th February 2016

“CICA Appeals; some practical points” Personal Injury Law Journal,
June 2015 (136)

Beyond the Bar

Christian loves being with his family. He also enjoys running, playing the piano and beekeeping.