Healthcare

David is a first-class and highly regarded Barrister with over 30 years' experience of dealing with serious and high-profile cases. He is a senior and important member of Chambers' Healthcare Team. He regularly represents healthcare professionals facing disciplinary proceedings in tribunals and also criminal charges in both the Crown & Magistrates Courts. His exceptional analytical skills and first-class advocacy combined with a relaxed manner when dealing with clients has led to him being in significant demand. He gives clear advice and has a track record of success.

He has also been appointed to the full Panel of specialist advocates who represent the General Medical Council in tribunal hearings dealing with various complex medical and fitness to practice issues.
