Police Law

David is a first-class and highly regarded Barrister with over 30 years' experience of dealing with serious and high-profile cases. He is a senior and important member of Chambers' Police Team. He is able to provide expert advice and representation to Police Officers facing Misconduct Proceedings (including Appeals) as well as criminal charges in both the Crown & Magistrates Courts. He has previously represented Officers from Greater Manchester, Lancashire, Merseyside, South Yorkshire and Humberside.

David's reputation for dealing with such matters properly and sensitively, and very often successfully has resulted in him having an excellent reputation in this area of work and being greatly in demand.
