Inquests

James is regularly instructed on inquests. He welcomes instructions from the family or other Interested Persons.

He adopts a sympathetic and thoughtful approach and provides expert guidance and advice throughout the process.

James' personal injury and clinical negligence experience allow him to take into consideration the implications of inquest findings on any potential future claim.

James's recent inquest experience has included:

- Representing a GP following the death of a child patient in the GP's care.
- Acting for the Welsh Ambulance Services NHS Trust in a case involving a heart attack of a patient and a complex issue of delay in responding to a 999 call.
- Counsel for the Ambulance trust in a case involving death by misadventure following an overdose of a recreational drug with the issue being the airway management care of the paramedic.
- Acting for the family of the deceased who died from natural causes where there was a missed opportunity to consider the need for specialist tertiary advice.
- The consideration of Article 2 Middleton inquests in a death by hanging case.

Recommendations

“I’m not sure if this is possible but I would like to pass on my sincere gratitude to Mr Kinsey who represented me, he was absolutely fantastic and a credit to his instructing solicitors!”

“I would also ask you to pass on my gratitude to my barrister. What an excellent choice of an individual to represent me, your solicitors, himself and his Chambers. It must be noted that immediately I was placed at ease by his attitude although incredibly professional and knowledgeable he was also human without the aloofness one would associate with a barrister. The questions and instructions given to me enabled me to go into court, answer and stand up to cross examination and give honest consistent responses which resulted in the successful outcome of my claim.”

Client testimonials

“I’m glad you felt relaxed with James. He is lovely and a great barrister, with a particular eye for detail”

“James is extremely astute and has a tactical and practical approach to his cases. He always has a very clear understanding of the commercial aspects of the case. His immense knowledge of complex personal injury matters allows him to get straight to the key issues in each case, knowing exactly when to seek further instructions, whilst having a keen sense of commercial awareness”
