

Jennifer Hunt

Call 2014

Clerks

 Mark Shannon
 0151 305 3365

 Wendy Shannon
 0151 305 3367

Memberships

- FLBA

Education

- Bar Professional Training Course – Very Competent
- LLB Hons (2:1) University of Liverpool

Family

Jennifer focuses her practice on private and public law matters representing parents, extended family members, children and interveners. She appears in all levels of the Family Court.

Public Law

Jennifer has experience of proceedings involving issues of chronic neglect, domestic violence, substance misuse, non accidental injuries, sexual abuse and emotional abuse. She regularly represents young vulnerable mothers and parents with low cognitive functioning and mental health conditions.

Private Law

Jennifer is regularly instructed in complex Section 8 Children Act applications involving allegations of domestic violence and sexual abuse. She represents all parties in applications for Child Arrangements Orders, Specific Issue Orders and Prohibited Steps Orders. She accepts instruction on a legal aid or private basis. Jennifer also represents parties in Family Law Act proceedings including application for ex parte Non Molestation Orders and Occupation Orders.

Cases

- Representation of a Father in the High Court before Ms Justice Russell on a case involving inter-familial sexual abuse.
- Instructed to represent the perpetrator of posterior rib fractures to a 12 week old baby, the client had an extremely low IQ and psychiatric issues.