Jodie has been recognised by Legal 500 (2025) to be 'a go-to junior barrister'; her level of experience being extensive for her year of call. She regularly represents clients in high value multi-track claims, and is often instructed from the pre-action stage through to trial.

Aside from her Court work, Jodie's drafting experience spans a vast range of areas including breach of contract, tort, deceit, fraudulent misrepresentation, partnership disputes and petitions under section 994 of the Companies Act 2006. Jodie is regularly instructed to advise upon, draft and attend procedural applications, including urgent and without notice applications for injunctive relief.

Jodie has been recognised by Legal 500 as a Rising Star in the field of Company and Insolvency law. She easily builds a good rapport with clients; with her client care skills having been described as 'excellent' (Legal 500, 2025).

Jodie is known for being 'formidable in court'; 'technically strong' and for her ability to 'get to grips with complex matters quickly' (Legal 500, 2025). Together with her own practice, Jodie regularly undertakes led work in complex, cross-border and multi-million pound matters, and her recent cases of significance include:

Forster v Reynolds Porter Chamberlain LLP [2023] EWHC 1150 (Ch)

Uconinvest LLC v Jysan Holding LLC [2024] EWHC 1532 (Ch)
