Overview CV

Kirsty was called to the Bar in 2018 by the Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn after achieving an Outstanding on the BPTC at Manchester BPP. She moved to Exchange Chambers in 2023 and has a broad commercial and chancery practice that includes insolvency, property, wills, trusts and probate and commercial litigation.

Kirsty appears regularly in the County and High Courts, both remotely and in person, for procedural hearings, interlocutory applications and trials, and has considerable experience of handling winding-up lists, bankruptcies and possession hearings.

In addition to her court experience, Kirsty is regularly instructed to draft formal advice, statements of case and applications across her practice areas. Kirsty also provides informal advice and guidance throughout the course of proceedings.

Kirsty is based in Leeds but practices nationwide and is happy to travel across the country for court hearings and conferences to ensure the best possible service for her clients.

Outside of her practise, Kirsty regularly assists with educational events for students at the Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn and at universities in the North East.
