Family

Matthew, a former Solicitor since 2004, was called to the Bar and joined Exchange Chambers in 2022. He is a specialist children law practitioner and was a member of the Law Society's Children Law accreditation scheme for 8 years before transferring.

During his career as a solicitor, Matthew developed an established practice with a particular emphasis on public law proceedings and complex private law proceedings. His experience covers the fullest range of child protection law, including significant matters such as the death of or serious injury to a child, sexual abuse, non-accidental injury and fabricated or induced illness.

Matthew has also had lots of involvement in cases where he has represented young people separately from their guardian in care proceedings and inherent jurisdiction proceedings.

Notable cases as solicitor acting for a party:

- Re A [2015] EWCA Civ 133
- Re C [2016] EWCA Civ 356
- Re AA & 25 Ors [2019] EWFC 64
- A City Council v LS & Ors (Secure Accommodation Inherent Jurisdiction) [2019] EWHC 384 (Fam)
- A Local Authority v W (Application for Summary Dismissal of Findings) [2020] EWFC 40 & A Local Authority and W, R, S and L [2020] EWFC 68

Beyond the Bar

Away from work, Matthew is married with two young children. He is a keen runner and volunteers as a coach at a local junior football club.
