

Richard Tetlow

Call 2006

Clerks

 Joe Mawson
 0161 817 2753

 Chris Brown
 0161 817 7146

 Prya Anisa
 0161 817 2794

Appointments

- Junior Counsel to the Crown (Regional Panel A)

Memberships

- Northern Chancery Bar Association
- Northern Circuit Commercial Bar Association
- Northern Circuit

Education

- Shrewsbury School, 1997-2002
- MA (Cantab), Law, Downing College, Cambridge (II.i, 2002-2005)
- BVC, Inns of Court School of Law (Very Competent, 2005-2006)
- Jules Thorne Scholarship, Middle Temple, 2005
- Pupillage, 8 King Street, Manchester, 2006-2007 (tenancy 2007 – joined Exchange Chambers in 2008)
- Junior of the Northern Circuit, 2009

Insolvency

Richard is an experienced Junior in the Insolvency department, with significant experience in the area, acting in an advisory capacity, in drafting and in advocacy of all kinds.

Richard is listed as a Leading Individual in Chambers & Partners in Commercial Dispute Resolution and Restructuring/Insolvency, and a Leading Junior in The Legal 500 in Company and Insolvency.

He has been variously described as:

- “He is very good on his feet. He is careful and well prepared, and he has a manner that clients can gel with.” “He’s very persuasive in front of a judge and very good at spotting unusual points.” “He is very approachable and very user-friendly.” (Chambers and Partners 2021)
- “Good to work with. Team player. Nothing too much trouble. Reliable and hard working.” (The Legal 500 2021)
- “Very diligent and always well prepared.” (Chambers and Partners 2020)
- a “talented junior with a burgeoning reputation, who handles a wide variety of commercial disputes including company, contractual and insolvency-related matters”, having “exactly the right attitude” and being an “extremely able and user-friendly junior – he is very much a safe pair of hands on all things chancery, commercial and insolvency related.” (Chambers and Partners 2019)
- “a future star who is particularly good at cross-examination” (Chambers and Partners 2018)

Richard is Junior Counsel to the Crown (Regional A Panel) and, as such, instructed regularly in cases involving breaches of directors’ duties, public interest winding up petitions and directors’ disqualification proceedings.

Richard is also a member of the Commercial, Commercial Fraud and Property teams and thus able to deal with matters also covering those areas of law.

More particularly, Richard's practice encompasses:

- all aspects of personal and corporate insolvency, for both office holders and those subject to insolvency proceedings;
- voidable transactions and other matters;
- misfeasance;
- directors' disqualification and unfair prejudice petitions; and
- injunctions
- appearing regularly in insolvency applications in the Applications List in the Business and Property Courts

Insolvency Cases

Recent and relevant cases include:

Absolute Living Developments Ltd v DS7 Ltd and others [2018] EWHC 1717 (Ch) & [2018] EWHC 1432 (Ch) – being led by David Mohyuddin QC in a case involving allegations of de facto and shadow directorship and largescale fraud amounting to £14,000,000 generally, and in two reported decisions relating to contempt of Court and security for costs as against a liquidator. Richard was further involved in drafting appeal papers to the Court of Appeal in the matter.

PS v B & Others (December 2018/Jan 2019) – acting for receivers of numerous properties comprising hotels in London in an action to seek a validation order for the intended sale of those hotels for a sum in excess of £15,000,000 in the face of opposition from the debtor. The case involved consideration of the jurisdiction of the Court to validate a sale of property by Court appointed and out of Court appointed receivers.

Acting for the Crown advising on the interpretation and application of the new procedure for debtors' bankruptcy applications under ss.263 H-O of the Insolvency Act 1986, which came into force in April 2016. This involved conducting numerous hearings and being actively involved in the preparation of the leading decision on the issue, Budniok v The Adjudicator, Insolvency Service [2017] EWHC 368 (Ch) (commentary on the case may be found in Insolvency Intelligence (Insolv. Int. (2017) Vol.30 No.6 Pages 89-91) and New Law Journal (N.L.J. (2017) Vol.167 No.7737 Page 17)).

MacMillan v Manning (2017) – successful defence of a multi-day trial for misfeasance

Recommendations

“Richard is very easy to work with and gives good, commercial advice.”

“Richard is a very good team player and hard-working. He is an excellent junior.”

“We were extremely impressed with Richard’s attention to detail and with his advocacy.”

Chambers and Partners 2024

“Richard is technically excellent whilst also commercially minded. He impresses clients with a confident but courteous courtroom approach, and he is both meticulous and efficient in drafting pleadings.”

The Legal 500 2024

“Richard’s drafting is excellent.”

“He has a sharp mind and gets to the nub of the issue quickly. He develops a good rapport with clients.”

Chambers and Partners 2023

“Richard is commercial in his approach, delivers clear advice and builds a good rapport with clients, which in turn provides them with confidence.”

“Richard is very thorough with excellent attention to detail. He is great with clients, calm and unflappable on his feet.”

The Legal 500 2023

“I look at his style with envy; he is a superb advocate.”

“He has a magical vision to find ways through difficult cases and pathways to resolutions that others don’t see.”

Chambers and Partners 2022

“The qualities Richard has are undoubtedly attention to detail and quality of the work produced. He is also prepared to roll up his sleeves and fight the client’s corner as an advocate if required. The service he provides is however delivered with an overarching commercialism and he gives it to you straight. He would never leave you in any doubt as to the strengths or weakness of a particular point.”

The Legal 500 2022

“He is very approachable and very user-friendly.”

“He is very good on his feet. He is careful and well prepared, and he has a manner that clients can gel with.” “He’s very persuasive in front of a judge and very good at spotting unusual points.”

Chambers and Partners 2021

“Good to work with. Team player. Nothing too much trouble. Reliable and hard working.”

The Legal 500 2021

“He is very diligent and always well prepared.”

Chambers and Partners 2020

“He is a very good barrister and has exactly the right attitude.”

“He’s an extremely able and user-friendly junior – he is very much a safe pair of hands on all things chancery, commercial and insolvency related.”

Chambers and Partners 2019

“He is a future star who is particularly good at cross-examination.”

“He is very efficient, pleasant to deal with and knows his stuff.”

Chambers and Partners 2018