Education

Simon attended Batley Grammar School before undertaking his degree at Nottingham. After university he undertook a Masters in Banking Law at Queen Mary College in London where he was a City Bank Scholar.

Court of Protection

Simon has extensive experience of Court of Protection work involving both vulnerable children and vulnerable adults. The range of his experience covers both personal injury work and cared for children and adults. As well as working for the individual claimants, Simon has been instructed by various local authorities to deal with a number of different care and treatment issues. The range of his work has included deprivation of liberty, the alleged failure by the authority to provide appropriate care, the use of excessive force, the wrongful detention of patients and the harm that is alleged to have been caused by those matters.

Simon considers himself to be approachable and knowledgeable and is happy to discuss matters at short notice if he can be of assistance.
